

Internship Opening – Natural Resource Technician, Part-time (30-39 hours per week)

JOB DESCRIPTION

Join NCS' natural resources team to play an integral role in implementing field work in a variety of ecological restoration roles. NCS is seeking a Field Technician Intern performing a variety of tasks involving labor with hand tools, project documentation and clean-up, technical work, and some light machine operation under supervision. A typical work day consists of 7-8 hours of in-the-field physical exertion and intensive focus, with variation for weather and specific upland and wetland job needs.

RESPONSIBILITIES

There are several work classifications in this job title, and work responsibilities and hours required vary by project. Assigned projects aid us in the areas of invasive species management, native landscaping, green infrastructure, ecology, and environmental science. General responsibilities may include:

- Carrying out assigned projects and programs in areas of Invasive species removal and herbicide application.
- Installs green infrastructure – native plantings, natural shorelines, bioswales, bank stabilizations/bioengineering, butterfly gardens.
- Installing and watering native plants and distributing seed and erosion control materials.
- Aiding in shoreline stabilization and restoration construction.
- Conducting field studies to identify and assess natural resources: water, flora, soil/geochemistry, wildlife, forests, wetlands, etc.
- Inspecting work sites to identify safe practices, hazardous conditions, environmental contamination, conformance with accepted practice.
- Controlling invasive weeds.
- Studying a variety of soils/geological profiles, water, plants, animals, and microbes, using instruments and software.

COMPENSATION AND TIMELINE

Compensation is commensurate with experience, typically undergraduate level at $10/hr. There will, however, be opportunities for advancement in this position in accordance with performance.

The internship will take place generally between May – August, with potential opportunity throughout the year, including fall and winter, as needed.

NCS is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We do not discriminate on the basis of age, sex, race, color, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability or veteran status. At any time, if you need an accommodation during the application process, please contact Human Resources.

If interested, Submit a Resume and at least one reference to john@naturalcommunityservices.com.